

Making a Difference

The firm of Margaret Gettle Washburn, P.C. is a general trial practice dedicated to representing injured workers, accident victims, family law, criminal defense, business and corporate litigation, and estate probate matters in Lawrenceville. The attorneys and paralegals are team players, committed to great service for their clients. She is known for her trial advocacy over the past 35 years in Gwinnett County. Attorney Houston Washburn is a member of the firm, specializing in personal injury cases and criminal defense. Attorney Scott Mitchell specializes in family law, estate and probate matters. Ms. Washburn graduated from Emory University School of Law. She is the Chief Judge, Municipal Court for the City of Sugar Hill; Associate Judge, Duluth, Berkeley Lake and Winder; recipient of numerous awards from Gwinnett County Bar Association and Council for Municipal Court Judges of Georgia; "Best of Gwinnett" for legal representation 2014-present; Gwinnett People to Know; sponsor of Gwinnett Leadership of Women; Past President, GCBA, Lawrenceville Kiwanis Club and Council for Municipal Court Judges; over 70 published articles. Member of Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce and the Georgia Bulldawg Nation!

Margaret Gettle Washburn, P.C.

WASHBURNLAWOFFICES.COM
770.963.1105